C.O.P.S. has created a way to pay your monthly dues AS A RETIRED OFFICER through ACH Debit service. With the ACH Debit Service you have an option to pay your dues WHEN PAYROLL DEDUCTION IS NO LONGER APPLICABLE. With the ACH Debit Services you can choose to have your monthly dues debited directly from your checking account into C.O.P.S. approved AUTOMATED CLEARING HOUSE (ACH) account.

ACH SAVES YOU TIME:

- No calendaring to remind you to write a check for C.O.P.S.
- No delay in membership coverage

ACH PAYMENT IS SAFE:

- No worry about stolen or lost checks
- No worry about forged checks
- No danger or fraud

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS:

Q What is an ACH Debit payment?

A ACH Debit payment is a system that automatically debits your monthly dues from your checking account directly into your union financial institution that is an approved member of an Automated Clearing House (ACH).

Q Who is eligible for ACH Debit Services?

A ALL retired officers from ALL agencies are eligible for this special reduced payment of dues through the ACH Debit Services.

Q What advantage is there for paying dues through the ACH Debit Service?

A The advantage is the payment will be regulated through your checking account instead of payroll deduction or direct billing.

Q When will my payment be deposited into the C.O.P.S. ACH account and how much?

A The dues of $15.00 will be debited from your account automatically, once a month, and around the first day of the month.

Q What do I do if my dues are not debited from my account?

A Contact the C.O.P.'s office immediately to confirm the banking information is correct and to verify your membership status.

Q What happens if I change banking institutions?

A Participants are limited to changing accounts twice within a twelve month period. Contact the C.O.P.S. office immediate to cancel the old information and submit a new authorization form with the new information to update your account.

Q. How do I sign up for ACH Debit Service?

A. Just fill out and submit the attached AUTHORIZATION AGREEMENT FOR ACH DEBITS and fax to C.O.P.S. at (713) 802-0517 with a copy of a "voided" check
